

Luxury Residential Villas

4 bedroom private pool villa arranged around a central courtyard.

These delightful villa exude simplicity and a passion for outdoor living. Extensive shaded terraces and separate garden areas contribute a feeling of airiness and spaciousness in what is an easily-managed villa size.

The separate living room and dining room have dual aspects to the gardens providing a natural flow from the high-ceiling interiors through to the lush planting and terraces outside.

The kitchen is full size with a dedicated utility area which together with the generously proportioned rooms elsewhere, makes this a very practical home for holidays and longer stays.

The master bedroom with its own dressing area and a second bedroom are arranged carefully on the second floor to provide bright airy views into the gardens and includes an accessible roof terrace complete with planters.

The third bedroom is located on the ground floor, overlooking the pool and makes an enchanting suite ideal for guests and those wanting a ground level bedroom.
